

Advocacy And Social Change Communication Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	General Training	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

In today's rapidly evolving development landscape, Advocacy and Social Change Communication (ASCC) has become a powerful approach for influencing policies, transforming social norms, strengthening citizen engagement, and driving sustainable development outcomes. Governments, civil society organizations, development agencies, media institutions, and community leaders increasingly rely on evidence-based advocacy, strategic communication, digital campaigning, behavior change communication, stakeholder engagement, policy influence, and social mobilization to address complex social challenges. Advocacy And Social Change Communication Training Course equips participants with the practical knowledge, tools, and strategies required to design and implement impactful advocacy and communication interventions that create measurable social change.

The course combines contemporary theories, practical frameworks, and real-world experiences to strengthen participants' capacity in digital advocacy, social media campaigns, policy advocacy, strategic storytelling, community engagement, public relations, data-driven communication, citizen participation, social accountability, gender-responsive communication, climate advocacy, and social impact measurement. Through interactive learning, case studies, simulations, and hands-on exercises, participants will develop actionable skills to influence decision-makers, mobilize communities, build strategic partnerships, and achieve transformative social outcomes.
