Evidence to Policy Translation in M&E Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Monitoring and Evaluation	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

In today’s rapidly evolving development landscape, the ability to translate Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) evidence into actionable policy is critical for driving sustainable impact. Evidence to Policy Translation in M&E Training Course equips participants with advanced skills in evidence synthesis, policy analysis, and strategic communication, enabling them to bridge the gap between data and decision-making. Leveraging cutting-edge tools, global best practices, and real-world case studies, participants will gain practical expertise in turning complex evaluation findings into clear, persuasive policy recommendations that inform government, NGO, and private sector strategies.

This course emphasizes the integration of evidence-based insights into the policymaking process, fostering stronger accountability, transparency, and adaptive learning in organizations. Participants will engage in hands-on exercises, interactive discussions, and scenario-based simulations, ensuring they can effectively advocate for data-driven decisions. By the end of the training, learners will be proficient in using evidence to shape policies that drive measurable outcomes, strengthen governance, and enhance program effectiveness.
