Category	Migration and Refugee	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

The Global Compact on Refugees (GCR) is a landmark international framework that emphasizes burden- and responsibility-sharing among states and stakeholders to address the challenges of forced displacement. The Global Compact on Refugees (GCR) Training Course equips participants with practical knowledge, advanced strategies, and applied tools to effectively engage with the GCR, foster refugee protection, and contribute to long-term, sustainable solutions. Through in-depth case studies, interactive sessions, and practical simulations, learners will strengthen their expertise in refugee law, international cooperation, policy-making, and humanitarian response while aligning with global best practices.

This course incorporates trending themes such as global migration governance, refugee protection frameworks, durable solutions, multi-stakeholder engagement, humanitarian-development nexus, and responsibility-sharing models. By integrating academic insights with real-world applications, participants will build leadership capacity, improve coordination skills, and enhance operational efficiency to better serve refugees, host communities, and partner institutions.
