Course Introduction

OECD?ÇÖs Public Governance Indicators Training Course provides a comprehensive learning framework for understanding, applying, and analyzing governance performance measurement tools that shape policy reforms, institutional effectiveness, and accountability. Using evidence-based governance indicators, this program equips professionals with practical skills in performance evaluation, transparency monitoring, fiscal accountability, and citizen-centered service delivery assessment. By aligning with global best practices and OECD governance frameworks, participants will gain advanced insights into building stronger governance systems that foster trust, inclusiveness, and sustainability.

Through practical modules, case studies, and expert-led discussions, learners will explore comparative policy benchmarking, governance data analysis, intergovernmental relations, and institutional capacity development. The training emphasizes data-driven decision-making, governance innovation, integrity standards, and regulatory quality assessment. Designed for policymakers, auditors, governance experts, and institutional leaders, this program ensures participants are well-prepared to use OECD indicators as strategic tools for reform, accountability, and effective service delivery in their organizations.
