Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Educational Leadership and Management	Duration	10 Days
Base Fee	$3,000 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Public-Private Partnerships (PPPs) have become a transformative model in bridging financing gaps and enhancing quality in the education sector. Training Course on Public-Private Partnerships (PPPs) in Education Finance is designed to empower education stakeholders with critical knowledge, skills, and tools to successfully design, implement, and evaluate PPP frameworks. With increased global demand for inclusive, equitable, and quality education, PPPs offer strategic avenues for unlocking private sector investment, ensuring accountability, and improving learning outcomes in both developing and developed nations.

This course explores key dimensions of PPPs including legal frameworks, financial modeling, risk allocation, governance structures, and performance monitoring. Using real-world case studies, interactive modules, and policy simulations, participants will gain hands-on experience in navigating the complexities of PPPs in education finance. The curriculum is built around current trends such as impact investing, innovative financing, blended capital, and sustainable development goals (SDGs), ensuring relevance and actionable insights.
