Category	Educational Leadership and Management	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

In today's educational landscape, ensuring the safety, welfare, and protection of children is a critical responsibility for all stakeholders involved in learning environments. Training Course on Safeguarding and Child Protection in Educational Institutions provides a robust, evidence-based foundation to empower teachers, administrators, and support staff with the skills, tools, and frameworks necessary to recognize, prevent, and respond effectively to child abuse and neglect. Emphasizing policy compliance, emotional intelligence, risk assessment, and behavioral indicators of abuse, this course aligns with global best practices and legal obligations related to child welfare in education.

Participants will gain practical insight into creating child-safe learning environments, implementing preventative safeguarding measures, responding to disclosures, and ensuring early intervention when children are at risk. The course is grounded in the latest research, psychological frameworks, and real-world case studies, making it highly relevant to both public and private educational institutions. Through interactive learning strategies, this training fosters a culture of protection, trust, and accountability within schools.
