Course Introduction

The Training Course on The Role of Legislatures in Audit Committees is designed to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of the critical role that legislative bodies play in the oversight of audit committees. This training focuses on enhancing participants' knowledge of audit processes, accountability mechanisms, and the legislative framework that supports effective governance. In an era where transparency and accountability are paramount, this course addresses the need for legislators to actively engage in audit oversight. Through interactive workshops, case studies, and practical exercises, participants will learn to navigate the complexities of audit committees and their functions. By the end of the program, participants will be equipped to contribute effectively to legislative oversight of audit processes in their respective roles.
