

Workplace Rights Awareness Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Trade Unions	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Workplace Rights Awareness Training Course is designed to strengthen employee understanding of labor laws, ethical workplace conduct, and organizational accountability. In today's evolving corporate environment driven by ESG standards, DEI frameworks, remote work policies, gig economy expansion, and digital labor transformation organizations must ensure that employees and managers fully understand their rights, responsibilities, and protections. This training equips participants with practical knowledge on harassment prevention, fair labor practices, whistleblowing systems, psychological safety, and equal opportunity compliance, helping build transparent and legally compliant workplaces.

The course integrates global best practices in workplace governance, human rights compliance, occupational safety standards, and employee relations management. It empowers staff to identify violations, respond appropriately to workplace conflicts, and engage reporting mechanisms confidently. By focusing on real-world case scenarios, legal frameworks, and organizational policies, this program fosters a culture of accountability, inclusion, and ethical leadership. It is especially relevant in an era where organizations are expected to demonstrate strong corporate responsibility, labor compliance audits, and employee well-being metrics.
